

Information Sessions

2023 - 2024

Participation by year

Participation by Faculty

76%

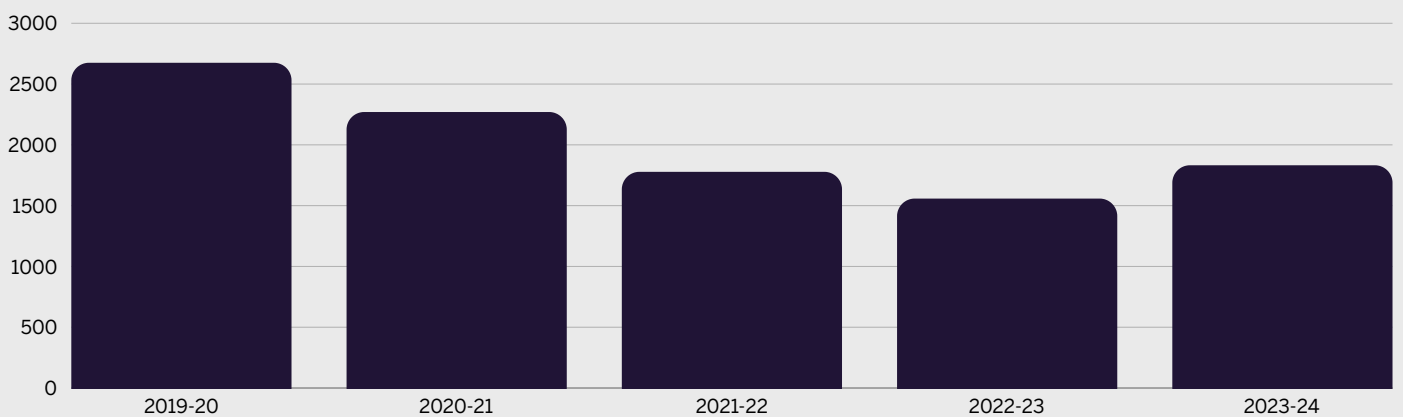

of students expressed they are likely to apply for a job with the organization after attending an employer information session.

90% of students attended either the Fall or Winter information sessions, offering employers a chance to connect with a unique audience each season.

Attendance at Info Sessions Between 2019 - 2024

Top factors students consider while job hunting

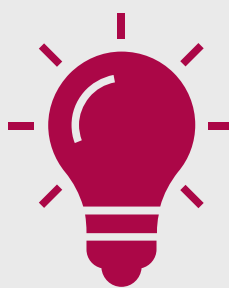

Salary

Career Advancement

Work-Life Balance

Students reported satisfaction with receiving information on company culture and values, and opportunities available for internship and co-op.

Students reported wanting more information on the application and interview process.

